the history of western

Western Kentucky State College in Bowling Green, Kentucky, is situated 120 miles south of Louisville, Kentucky, and 68 miles north of Nashville, Tennessee. The College is centered around a Civil War fort on the upper levels of the highest hill in the region. Fort Albert Sidney Johnston was the scene of a valiant Southern stand to stop a Union drive to Nashville.

The college was established by an act of the 1906 Legislature of Kentucky. It became a reality when the Southern Normal School was transferred to the state on January 1, 1907. The name of the school was changed to Western Kentucky State Normal School with its location becoming College Heights in 1912. The revered Dr. H. H. Cherry was instrumental in this action and later became the first president of the college.

In 1922 the college was granted the right to confer degrees upon its graduates. Ogden College, a small liberal arts college also in Bowling Green, became an integral part of Western with a merger in 1928. Western Kentucky State College became the official name of the institution in 1948; and 15 years later, in 1963, the Bowling Green College of Commerce, a well-known Kentucky business college, became the nucleus of Western's College of Commerce.

MARGIE HELM LIBRARY

PAUL L. GARRETT STUDENT CENTER

Thirteen major classroom buildings are situated on the eight-acre campus with a new three-story ultra-modern student center soon to be completed, a five-story administration building and a five-story classroom building scheduled for completion in 1966.

One of the most interesting auxiliary buildings on campus is the Kentucky Library and Museum. The Kentucky Library is recognized by scholars as the most complete collection of records and data on the upper South available.

CLASSROOM BUILDING

KENTUCKY BUILDING

The Academic-Athletic Building, the most recent addition to the campus, with its combination of studies and sports center, typifies the feeling of equal respect for both intellectual and athletic pursuits. The building houses thirty master classrooms, an Olympic-size swimming pool, office facilities for faculty members, an auxiliary gymnasium, and the E. A. Diddle Arena with a seating capacity of 13,000.

E. A. Diddle is a tradition at Western. In the basketball world, he is the "winningest coach in the nation" and has set another national record by being a part of our campus for over forty years.

ACADEMIC-ATHLETIC BUILDING AND E. A. DIDDLE ARENA

Omicron Kappa Alpha Fraternity was founded in October, 1955, at Western Kentucky State College. The fraternity had eight charter members who now form the core of an active and helpful alumni association.

Omicron Kappa Alpha was organized to promote the betterment of man through brotherhood. This remains the goal of the fraternity.

The first pledgeship came in March, 1956 and the "Oma-Krons," as they were then known, became more firmly established with the addition of five members.

The fraternity's attention then turned toward securing a meeting hall to help promote their brotherhood. Extremely successful, Oma-Krons bought a lodge several miles from the college nestled on the banks of a nearby river.

The Oma-Krons, along with other local fraternal groups, were not recognized as an organization at Western until 1961. In order to meet all the requirements of the college, the group was required to sell its lodge.

the oka story

Omicron Kappa Alpha has been active in various civic projects. The fraternity has sponsored three successful blood drives for the Red Cross, and frequently assisted with the Bowling Green Boys' Club. At Thanksgiving and Christmas the brothers gather food baskets for needy families. The most recent project of the fraternity was the establishment of a scholarship fund in memory of Brother Jim Brown, who was killed in an automobile accident in December 1962. This is the first scholarship of its kind ever offered at the college.

The Sigma Nu colony has members affiliated with many campus groups such as: Western Players, The Sociological Forum, Western Debate Associates, Circle K, the College Heights Herald staff, Student National Education Association and many others. The colony also has men placed in class offices and on the Inter-Fraternity Council Executive Committee. The fraternity has been very successful in intramurals, placing in the top 3 of the 13 local fraternities for the past five years.

For over a year the major goal of the Omicron Kappa Alpha Fraternity has been the pursuit of the national fraternity who goals were consistent with our own. In this project, as always, Omicrons had enthusiastic alumni support, stemming from the idea on which the fraternity was founded — brotherhood.

Our initial interest in Sigma Nu was manifested with the selection of two prominent young instructors, both Sigma Nu brothers of Eta Epsilon chapter, as our first advisors.

With the ideals and traditions of Sigma Nu presented to us by these men, the Omicrons eagerly committed themselves to the task of seeking only Sigma Nu. The first contact was made in October 1963. To strengthen this contact, the brothers began a series of receptions with our guests of honor being Sigma Nu alumni from the surrounding area.

Mr. Jerome Sullivan immediately visited our campus in December 1963 to appraise the college. Following the contact with Mr. Sullivan were two extremely inspirational visits from Mr. Richard R. Fletcher in March and May of 1964. His last visit was the event of commitment of OKA to Sigma Nu. An impressive and memorable occasion, our colonization was the first official connection of Omicron Kappa Alpha and Sigma Nu. The "Krons" since have become a memory. Opr members have been remolded into a finer group of men believing in the life of love, walking in the way of honor, and serving in the light of truth.

MR. FLETCHER VISITS WESTERN FOR COLONIZATION

We take pride in presenting this space in our petition to honor Greenfield Quarles, Alpha No. 2.

Since its beginning, Sigma Nu has been closely associated with Kentucky. Besides the fact that founder Quarles was born in Christian County in April of 1847, our organization is the fifth such group to be associated with Sigma Nu in Kentucky. (Omicron and Zeta Chapters are now dormant.)

In the words of Greenfield Quarles: "Every Chapter that is established takes something from the little torch that was lighted fifty years (now almost 100 years) ago and lights up the students in the different universities and colleges all over this broad land, and from them added inspiration shall be drawn. How pleasant is that thought to me!"

We humbly, and yet with pride, ask that we be allowed to carry the torch, that it may light our lives.

our petition to sigma nu

We the brothers of the Sigma Nu Colony of Western Kentucky State College respectfully but proudly present this petition for charter to the brotherhood of Sigma Nu Fraternity.

Membership in Sigma Nu has been the aspiration of the Men of the Colony throughout our short history. In the pages of this petition we hope you will find evidence that we are worthy of this high goal.

We have learned to Believe in the life of Love, to Walk in the way of Honor, and to Serve in the light of Truth. We ask now that this be our Creed, not just as a petitioning group, but as a bonafide member of the Sigma Nu family.

Dear Mr. Fletcher:

It is a genuine pleasure to support the petition for charter of the Sigma Nu Colony at Western Kentucky State College.

We have been visited by representatives of the Colony on several occasions, and have always enjoyed their company. The men of the Colony have brought to our chapter the same enthusiasm and skill that characterizes their operation at Western. We have found them formidable on the athletic field and stimulating in discussion groups. They have been eager to help us with anything we were doing during their visits, and have never departed without extending an invitation for us to visit them.

We are proud of Sigma Nu Fraternity, and feel that the standards for admission for a new chapter must be high. Our Colony at Western Kentucky State College fulfills every qualification that a new chapter should meet. We look forward to welcoming the men of this Colony as brothers in Sigma Nu.

Gamma Iota Chapter earnestly recommends the favorable consideration of this petition by all chapters in the Legion of Honor.

Dear Sir:

The purpose of this letter is to recommend the Sigma Nu Colony at Western Kentucky State College for a charter from the Sigma Nu Fraternity.

Through close association by means of the inter-fraternity council I have found this organization to be most cooperative. To The Collegiate Chapters of Sigma Nu

Dear Brothers:

With confidence and high enthusiasm I commend to you the petition for charter of our Colony at Western Kentucky State College, and urge your favorable consideration of it. The petition has my unqualified endorsement.

We were invited to the campus by an administration that is seeking to establish a strong fraternity system. Western has grown from a school of approximately 2700 in 1960 to almost 7,000 this year, and is projecting an enrollment of over 8,000 for 1965-66. We welcome the opportunity to participate in this dynamic growth.

Our Colony's initial interest in Sigma Nu stems largely from the efforts of Brother Randy Capps, co-adviser and instructor in English at Western. With his encouragement the Colony enlisted the support of prominent local Sigma Nu alumni in March, 1964. It was readily apparent to staff visitors thereafter that the potential for an exemplary chapter existed, and the Colony was officially recognized at a ceremony at Western on May 17, 1964.

From the beginning, the men of the Colony have set Sigma Nu as their goal. They firmly believe that no other fraternity can fulfill their aspirations. In this spirit of dedication, they pledged thirteen outstanding men in September, 1964, and in January, 1965, initiated every one of the thirteen into the Colony. The rest of their remarkable record at Western speaks for itself.

Strong endorsements have been forthcoming from every quarter. Division Commander Bob Cayce earnestly supports this petition. The Colony advisers, Brothers Capps and Richards, wholeheartedly back the petition on the basis of their extensive associations with the Colony. Nearby chapters at Kentucky Wesleyan, University of Kentucky, and Vanderbilt University have visited and have been visited by the Colony. These chapters are eager to have the men of the Colony as Brothers in Sigma Nu. The High Council has given its final approval. Now needed only is -- your approval. I urge it.

Fraternally,

Richard R. Fletcher
